ANDREWS' PROXY CHALLENGED

The spirit of the Republican rules, placing him in the untenable position of sitting in judgment on charges of trickery that are credited to himself and his chief aid—Buffandeau—and all of which appears to be certain to reach the county committee in due time.

Another Protest.
Following on the heels of the Kallamapua expose of the Andrews-Buffandeau method of doing politics, comes another, more glaring and brazen than any heretofore attempted along the same lines by the outfit that would manipulate the political game for their benefit and the party be blowed.

At the Republican precinct meeting held last Friday evening in the Tenth Precinct of the Fifth District, Joao F. de Nobrega, a resident of that district, was present, and when his name was brought forward by the Andrews-Buffandeau representatives he strenuously objected to having it entered as a delegate to the convention. Thinking that was an end to the matter, Mr. de Nobrega was somewhat surprised, while attending a meeting of the same club last night, to have a receipt handed him for his contribution of Friday night, and was also informed that he was a delegate to the convention on the Andrews-Buffandeau ticket.

Mr. de Nobrega, who is considered quite a political power in the Tenth of the Fifth, emphatically refused to serve as a delegate, and denounced the whole thing as manipulated by the machine, as being a crooked piece of work from beginning to end. Mr. de Nobrega states that he paid no contribution and that he desires nothing to do with the Andrews-Buffandeau crowd, and he makes the following statement in writing, over his signature, which fully explains itself:

"Honolulu, Aug. 30, 1910.
"This is to certify that I am not a delegate to the county convention. No one has a right to use my name."

"JOAO F. DE NOBREGA."

THREE PARTIES ARE COMING

Three different letters were received in yesterday's mail from the mainland by Promotion Committee, telling of parties coming to Hawaii during the next few months.

From Lincoln Inn Company at Chicago S. J. Wetmore writes for full information, stating that several of his friends are coming to Hawaii during the winter upon his recommendation. He also tells of using Hawaiian pineapple exclusively as it is far superior to any other.

Agent T. I. Rose, of the Louisville and Nashville railroad at Georgiana, Alabama, expects to bring a party here during the next few months, and from Huntsville, Alabama, comes a letter written by W. F. Streuve, representing the local branch of the Order of Eagles, telling of a party to be headed Hawaiiward in the near future.

MANX MANAGER A CAMPAIGNER

Genial Gus Larm Aids Hotel Employee In California Queen Contest

California has an exciting voting contest in which a young lady is to be selected as a queen for an autumn celebration. Interest of local people is due to the fact that Miss Lillian Jordan, auditor of the Hotel Manx, of San Francisco, known to many former Honolulu guests of that hotel, is one of the contestants. Her campaign is being managed by Gus Larm, the genial manager of the Manx Hotel, who has done so much to make the visit of the Bulletin's travel party a pleasant one while in San Francisco.

The following clipping from a California exchange is explanatory of the success that Mr. Larm and Miss Jordan are meeting with in the contest.

The contest for Queen California has been an exciting one. The second count brought out the partisans of Miss Lillian Jordan in great numbers. As auditor of the Hotel Manx she has a wide circle of friends, including two very influential ones. These are Gus Larm, the wide-awake and capable manager of the Manx, and Mrs. Harry Perkins, the cashier. Larm has the reputation of finishing in fine style whatever he begins in the same manner; and it is needless to say that he usually begins a thing right. As a result of having these two campaign managers the recent ballot placed Miss Jordan at the head of the race, with more than thirty thousand votes between her and the nearest competitor. Incidentally she won the prize that was offered as a prize for leading at this stage of the election.

ON FRIDAY, probably early in the morning, the Pacific Mail liner China, will arrive from Yokohama with passengers and a small amount of freight for this port. It is expected that the Chinese students, who are proceeding to the United States to enter the Imperial Chinese Government, will arrive as passengers on her. Should they come, they will be entertained here by the Chinese Consul.

AFTER A VOYAGE of forty four days from Valparaiso, Chile, the Japanese freighter Bujo Maru, arrived yesterday, bringing three thousand tons of fertilizer, consigned to H. Hackfeld & Co. She will resume her trip for Japan, as soon as the Honolulu cargo has been discharged.

THE STEAMER Mikahala, which goes to Molokai-Maui-Lanai ports will sail this afternoon at 5 o'clock. She will take among her passengers J. McVeigh, Superintendent of the Loper Settlement. It is said that she will take pains for the inmates of Molokai.

SHORTLY AFTER 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon the Pacific Mail liner Korea, which arrived early in the morning from San Francisco, sailed for the Oriental ports. She carried a few passengers from this port for Yokohama and Hongkong.

EARLY TOMORROW morning the inter-island steamer Claudine will arrive from Hilo and Maui ports. As usual, she will bring a number of passengers and general cargo. She will sail again for her destinations at 5 o'clock Friday afternoon.

THIS AFTERNOON at 5 o'clock the steamer Kinai will leave for Kauai ports, with passengers and general cargo. Among those who are booked to leave on her will be Mr. and Mrs. John Bush, well known kamaeas of Kauai.

THE STEAMER W. G. Hall will return from Kauai tomorrow morning with general merchandise. It is expected that the Kauai polo players will be among her passengers, when she sails again on Thursday afternoon.

THE SHIP DIRIGO and steamer J. L. Luckenbach have had libels entered against them by W. P. Fuller and the Pacific Hardware Company for damage to cargoes shipped by the vessels from New York.

THE American-Hawaiian steamer Faleon, on the coast run between San Francisco and Portland, had a severe trip up the coast, bucking head winds and heavy seas for the whole distance.
